

“First off, let me get this straight. This is a JOURNAL, not a diary.” That’s what Greg would say in the beginning of the story. There are many reasons why this is a spectacular story. First, sometimes things just show up in there, the characters in there are hilarious, and every book is different. So what are you waiting for, go get a book now.

Starting off with, sometimes things just show up in the story that is funny. Such as in the third book Rodrick shot Greg in the butt with a paintball gun. It was so funny tears came out of my eyes. I love it when unexpected stuff happens like that. If you love funny books, the third one is right for you.

Next, the characters are hilarious. Manny is small but loves to copy Greg and Rodrick, even whatever they say. Whenever Manny draws on the wall or door Mom and Dad just love it, but when Greg does that, then he gets grounded from video games. The characters in this book make you read it more.

Lastly, all of the books are different. In Dog Days, it’s about summer vacation, and in Rodrick Rules, it tells about his life in school. It’s fun to see different stuff happen in the books because each book is better than the last. Even though that each book doesn’t leave off where it was, they’re still the best to read.

In conclusion, there’s a lot of ways Diary of a Wimpy Kid is a great book. First there’s stuff that just shows up in the story, next each book is different, lastly the characters are hilarious. So if you got hooked in then go get a book at your local library NOW!
